

THE CORVETTE CLUB OF SA GOLFING "ALL STARS" DAY OUT

Wednesday morning rolled around. Golf Day.

Down in the city, the weather was wet and miserable. Our plan was to play up at Kenton Valley in the Hills to get a little closer to the sun.

We all met up at the Lobethal Bakery to fuel up on donuts, cream buns and caffeine.

Once we were half confident the weather was going to clear, we headed off to the golf course. Surprise, surprise, we were the only desperados paying for a round.

Splitting into two teams was Serge, Loud Graham and Normal Graham in Team 1, and Gary, myself, Wayne and a "Girl named Sue" in Team 2.

Playing by Ambrose rules, we headed on out.

We all had an absolute blast with the peace and quiet of the Adelaide Hills only being shattered from time to time by Loud Grahams "Yahooing".

Serge managed 'Shot of the Day' getting one of his balls stuck in a tree. Feel free to get your own visual of that because I don't have a photo.

Normally, I don't like to brag, but in this instance..... I will. We (Team 2) kicked butt. Sure, this may have a lot to do with Wayne and Sue carrying the team, but hey. Winners are Grinners.

We finished off the day with lunch and a beer at the Lobethal Pub topping off a great day.

Thanks to Serge for organising.
